The Nexus 4 Phone and Nexus 10 tablet hit shelves and online retailers today. With these devices comes Android 4.2 and on the Nexus 4 and Nexus 10 it offers lock-screen widgets as well as multi-user support. I'm not sure how handy multi-user support will be on a phone, but I know that with this running at a tablet, it could be a whole lot handier. Engadget has more details
