If you want to pick up a media player that also works as a decent camera, and even a phone, the Lumia 640 is not a bad choice. In fact, for the price of $27, it's pretty hard to pass up. I have a Lumia phone I picked up a couple of years ago for $40 and it's my go-to media player. If you need a newer, better one, consider this. Of course it's locked to Cricket Wireless, but that can be handled for a mere $10 online. Enjoy!
