Google has just announced their best of 2017 when it comes to the Play Store. There are a few great applications and a ton of useless drivel, so it's nice to see a nice tidy list that will help you narrow down your choices if you're still looking for a few good apps. They cover music, games, apps, and movies. Head on over for all the details.

No one knows how far she can go better than "Moana," as she landed the most popular movie of the year on Google Play. Strong female characters dominated this year's movies chart with "Rogue One: A Star Wars Story" and "Wonder Woman" rounding out the top three. "Game of Thrones" kept "Rick and Morty" and "The Walking Dead" at bay to claim the Iron Throne for the second year in a row as the most popular TV show.
